St. Luke news

With many visitors, friends and members of the St. Luke Church, services there were well attended. Rev. McLaughlin was in charge. Rev. Alvin Jones assisted him. The Adult Choir gave very inspiring music. Rev. McLaughlin spoke from 2nd Timothy 1-12, subject-Fully Secured. He brought out that our only security is in God. This was well taken. The offering was good.

A special prayer was offered for the ill ones of the community by Rev. Jones. Namely Mr. Henry Hamlette, Mr. Bolin Jones, Mrs. Edith Jones, Miss Samatha Marshall, Mrs. Esther Callahan, Mr. Collins Callaham, and Mrs. Ocie Elliott, who will enter the hospital today, (Mon.) for treatment. Also we are concerned about a much respected friend of the St. Lukers, the Rev. R. Q. Lawing and Mrs. Willie Mae McLaughlin.

On Jan. 30 the Senior Citizens of St. Luke who do volunteer work at the Lynchburg Home and Hospital attended a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Lena Wood, who was 87 years old. She was so graceously surprised and so calmly accepted the kindness she received a beautiful corsage and gifts from the staff and was recognized as the Sweetheart Of The Day.

The news staff took T.V. pictures of the occasion. It was shown on the 6:00 p.m. news and also the 11:00 o'clock news. Those on the screen were Mrs. Virginia Abbitt, Mrs. Louise Canada and others shown doing friendly acts for the patients.

The Senior Citizens of St. Luke really enjoy going up each Friday and doing volunteer work for those patients.

The St. Luke's Senior Choir will be observing its anniversary Feb. 22. All are invited to attend. Churches are being invited. Please come and enjoy this musical program.

The Maggie Claytor Senior Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Evatna Prophett Feb. 9.

All are so thankful for the refreshing rain.

Jordan Baptist news

I waited patiently tor the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. Psalm 40:1

On Sunday afternoon, Feb, 15, at 3:00 p.m, the Ladies Club will be presenting a special program. Everyone is invited to attend.

On the 4th Sunday night beginning at 7:30 p.m. the Jordan Senior Choir will be celebrating their 30th Anniversary. The St. Paul's Gospel Chorus will be the special guest. The public is invited to attend.

Rocks news

Rocks February 7: Rain is still badly needed around. Thankful for what we had.

Amy Morris spent last week end with Jennifer Inge at Pamplin.

The Friendship Circle had its February meeting with Phyllis Richardson on Tuesday afternoon.

On Sunday the Sunday School Devotional will have a play presented by the Acteens. And the W. M. U. will have recognitions of organizations. Ga Recognition Service.

The Home Mission study books will be taught for each W. M. U. age group in February. Begin now saving for the Annie Armstrong Easter offering in March. The churchwide goal is $660.00.

The Adult Sunday School teachers met on last Tuesday night in the home of Louise and Aulden Roach to preview the lessons for this unit of study. Youth teachers invited also. This is something new. Am sure this will be very helpful.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Soain and mother, Mrs. Katherine Mercer were in Lynchburg last Wednesday.

R. E. Roach made a business trip to Prospect on Thursday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Marshall was last Sunday night guest of her son, Jimmie Moore and family of Red Oak. And on last Monday she went to Lynchburg for a check up with the doctor. She is doing real well.

Linda Routt is back in school after being in with the flu again.

Debbie Grossom returned back to work last Monday.

Sympathy is extended James Ryan family of near Madisonville in the death of his brother in Hampton last week.

Congratulations to Sally Inge of Pamplin who won the birthday cake over WTTX on last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Caldwell Jr. spent last weekend in Martinsville with the former's father, Mr. Bill Caldwell Sr. He is back home from the hospital. May be have a speedy recovery.

Congratulations to Ronald Harvey of near Evergreen who won the birthday cake over WTTX on Thursday morning.

Get well wishes go out to Mrs. Minnie Taylor who is sick and grandson, Mike. Rachel Ranson was the her grandson, Otis last weekend of Prospect.

Howling winds on Monday night and Tuesday made us think of oncoming March.

Last week was the final week for the 1980 tobacco crop, Thursday was the last day as scheduled. The season was so short. Many had to work hard to get it sold on the last day.

Debbie and Jennifer Roach are in again with the flu. Pattie joined them. May they have a speedy recovery.

Judy Hipps of Blacksburg will spend this weekend at his home here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hipps of Pamplin.

Rev A. M. Taylor brought a fine message last Sunday. You missed a lot by not coming out.

The Rocks Club met on Tuesday night with Natalie Roach with a good number out.

The Valentine Party for the children was held Saturday afternoon at the church at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Louise Crain and children who have been living with one of her daughters, Zandra - and son-in-law, Frank Sisk Sr. have moved in their new trailer last weekend in the neighborhood.

Mt. Pleasant news

I am the Lord Thy God, which bought thee out of land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. Duet. 5 Chapter.

Wells are low and prices keep rising. Gas prices are almost out of sight, God is still in control.

We had an overflowing crowd at church last Sunday. Rev. Warren Naper and the St. Paul Gospel Chorus of Rustburg were our guest. They were so good they were given the invitation to come back the first Sunday in March at 11:00 a.m. Come out and hear them.

The Archer Creek Foundry sent four of their men to Sterling Height, Detroit. Mr. Milton Chambers was among them. He reported an enjoyable trip.

The Ladies' and Mens' Club of the church are planning a trip to Atlanta, Ga. The 19, 20, 21 of June. For more information call 248-6233 or 248-5510. More the merrier.

The Echoes of Glory will be at Mt Pleasant Church the 3rd Sunday in March at 3 p.m. Benefit of the Women's and Men's Rally the 4th Sunday in May.

Alabama Baptist news

And the night following the Lord Stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. Act 23, 11 verse.

The regular preaching service was held at the Alabama Baptist Church, with Pastor Elliott in charge.

Prayer service was led by Mrs. Lucille Coles and Deacon Ward. Mrs. Coles read 100 Psalm. Prayer Deacon Ward.

Rev. Elliott read 23 Chapter Acts and 11 verse. Prayer by Deacon James Moore. Theme: Be of Good Cheer. A splendid message was delivered by our Pastor Rev. Elliott. A large crowd attended the service.

We are praying for the sick and shut-in everywhere. Music was furnished by the Sernior and Jr. Choirs.

We were happy to have Mrs. Elliott in service with us. We thank each and everyone for coming out to help us in our service.
